PRESS KIT 2017

2014

Reona, the singer for one of the most well known idol groups in Akihabara area decided to quit and started to focus on one of her dreams, to be a vocalist for a rock band.

She recruited Yuho (Guitarist) as the partner and some other members who are known for their careers in Hard Core / Death Core / Post Hard Core scene in Tokyo. AstoLights was born in December 2014.

2015

Right after the band was formed, they entered the studio with Sync Music Production (known for the work with FEAR FROM THE HATE, SALTYDOG, etc) to record a 3 song EP. The EP was titled "Brand New Day" and released on February 25th 2015.

In June, they were invited by Tower Record Stores for in-store shows. They performed in 4 stores in Tokyo area (Shibuya, Akihabara, Ikebukuro and Yokohama). The EP was ranked 1st in the daily sales chart for the day they performed in Shibuya store.

The 2nd EP "MULTIVERSE" was released on September 9th 2015 which was also recorded and produced by Sync Music Production.

2016

Two previous members (Bassist and Drummer) decided to quit the group to pursue other interests. Soon after that they found replacements and focused on shows to support the two releases.

2017

They were chosen to provide a tie-up song for the movie which features an AKB 48 member. Also they started to record a brand new 4 song EP which is scheduled to be released in May..
